SMITH'S KIDNEY TONIC--TRY IT.

MISSPLACED THE LIST.

WARD FAILS TO EXPOSE THE MEN WHO ABSORBED $6,000,000.

Consults With His Counsel and Promises to Make Public the Names--A Letter Fore-telling His Defense--May 1 or Grace and the Firm--Note.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2—Ferdinand Ward left the New York jail, came down town, and sat in Gen. Tracy's office for three or four hours waiting to see his counsel. But the general was in court in Brooklyn and Ward returned to jail without seeing him. So Ward was anxious to get his counsel's opinion relative to the twenty-nine men whom he claims absorbed the $6,000,000 which constitutes the deficiency in the indebtedness of the firm of Grant & Ward and it was agreed that Gen. Tracy visited Ward at the jail and had a long consultation with him. Ward said to reporter shortly afterwards:

"I shall not make any statement as I am not yet in a position to do so. See Gen. Tracy early enough and I want to go over the matter thoroughly with him before I do anything about it. Don't imagine I'm going to do anything about it. I have no right to publicize the names of these twenty-nine men I have referred to, provided my counsel approved of this course. But I have not yet had their consent and I am in their hands."

A letter reported to have been written by Ward to his attorney, Gen. Tracy, and a friend in Washington concerning his brother's affairs, was made public in that city. The following extracts from it, it was published, clearly indicate the line of defense adopted by Ward's counsel in the criminal prosecution:

"As to the facts in my brother's case, I wish to say that they are now out of court. I do not care if I am held responsible for a fair play will cause a reaction and relieve him of that is cruel and unjust. Let me indicate a few points which may yet be settled."

"First, What if it should be proved that F. D. Grant was in the same contract business with the firm of Grant & Ward?"

"Second, What if it is proved that F. D. Grant was in the same contract business with the firm of Grant & Ward?"

"Third, What if it be proved that the Grant family lost by outside speculations, or the services of outside friends, amounts which, if not shown, would do away with the cry of poverty?"

"Fourth, What if it is proved the numbers of the Grant family were so great as to exacting exorbitant interest on loans to Grant & Ward?"

"Fifth, What if it be proved that the expenses of my brother have been and are being paid by his family and that he really has not a dollar?"

"Sixth, What if it be proved that the apparent loans of Gen. Grant and other members of the firm represent exorbitant gains upon the original investment?"

"Seventh, What if it be proved that the Grants were urged a few days after the failure to sell their home in New York and to base it from others their extravagant profile but did not do so?"

"Eighth, What if it be proved that although Ward had ample opportunity to secure himself, he not only never attempted to do so, but that everything in his power was used to benefit other people and not to myself, but pending my trial which is expected to come on my counsel objects to my introducing any statement to the nature of the business of that firm?"

"Ninth, What if it be proved that the amount of money which I have made is witness in the case of Mr. Holt, my assignee, against Mr. Warner."

"Tenth, However, we have no objection to Mr. Davis or Mr. Johnston making any or all the statements proposed."

"Eleventh, What if it be proved that the firm has been to the benefit of other people and not to myself, but pending my trial which is expected to come on my counsel objects to my introducing any statement to the nature of the business of that firm?"

"Twelfth, What if it be proved that the amount of money which I have made is witness in the case of Mr. Holt, my assignee, against Mr. Warner."

"Thirteenth, What if it be proved that the firm has been to the benefit of other people and not to myself, but pending my trial which is expected to come on my counsel objects to my introducing any statement to the nature of the business of that firm?"

"Fourteenth, What if it be proved that the firm has been to the benefit of other people and not to myself, but pending my trial which is expected to come on my counsel objects to my introducing any statement to the nature of the business of that firm?"

THE EVENING BULLETIN

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1885.

The Jeffersonville Glass Works of Indiana has failed. Cheap prices offered by other companies is given as a cause. The assets and liabilities are not known.

The Evening Post and the Times, of New York, are just now vigorously engaged in fighting the Democratic State ticket, and are doing all they can to defeat it. A year ago these same papers were doing their best to defeat the Republican National ticket.

Governor Knott has appointed Mr. J. S. Smith Commissioner for Kentucky to the New Orleans Exposition. Mr. Smith is a man of energy and is one of the spiciest writers in the South. It should seem fit to accept the place Kentucky will be well represented, and her interests carefully watched.

PATRICK HARTNETT, the Cincinnati wife murderer, was executed Wednesday morning at Columbus, O. It was one of the most sickening and revolting executions that have ever taken place. His head was almost severed from the body by the fall, which was seven feet. Death ensued in one-half a minute. His clothing was dangled with his life's blood.

The Democrats of New York are claiming the declination of Roswell P. Flower, of the nomination for Lieutenant Governor, augurs well for the success of the party in the coming election. They cite the case in 1876 when Seymour declined the nomination for Governor, and Lucas Robinson was put on the ticket in his place. Robinson was elected by 33,000 majority. This claim, however, will not hold true in all cases. The New York Democrats should remember that "this thing of politics is a devilish uncertain quantity now-a-days," and go to work in earnest for their nominees.

The indications point strongly to a Democratic victory in Ohio, New York and Virginia at the approaching elections. In Ohio the Democrats are in excellent spirits, and feeling confident of success. The "bloody shirt" issue raised by Sherman, Foraker and others has re-acted, and that illustrious crowd will probably be "hoist by their own petard." The nominations in New York have been received with favor by the party in that State, which augurs well for victory, while there seems to be but little doubt of Fitchburg Lee's election and the success of the party in Virginia. A victory for the Democrats in these three States in November would, in the common vernacular of the day, be a "paralyzer" to the Republican party.

JOSEPH H. DODSON DEAD.

An Important Witness in the Claverus Case Passes Away.

RICHMOND, Oct. 2.—The sudden death of Mr. Joseph H. Dodson, one of the most important witnesses for the prosecution in the noted Claverus murder trial, may result in working a favorable change for the condemned murderer. Claverus is in jail waiting the execution of the death sentence. His counsel are making every effort to obtain for him a new trial, and it is believed by many that their efforts will be successful.

Mr. Dodson was clerk at the American hotel on the night that Miss Fannie Lillian Madison mysteriously disappeared from that house. The note written by the dead girl that evening addressed to Claverus was turned to Mr. Dodson at the hotel. This witness formed one of the most important links in the chain of circumstances upon which Claverus was convicted. If the price could be paid now the commonwealth will not be able to prove the facts known to Mr. Dodson.

LURED BACK TO DIE.

A Ravisher Travels With a Panorama to Die.

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 2.—From all reports the sequel of the recent lynching in Wetzel county promises some startling developments. It seems that for a long time after Joe Grabb, the man who suffered at the hands of the mob, had left the girl, her friends made attempts to lure him back, but it was left to man named Hart to succeed. This, it is stated, he accomplished by offering to Grabb a sum in Greenback, Pennsylvania, and making a dramp. Grabb gave him work, and in a few days the two became very friendly. Ruthford agreed to buy Grabb's farm and the partners went to work to realize it. Hart, it is said, if the plan succeeded, to receive the money. Grabb agreed and the two set out with the panaceia, giving entertainments on the way. Arrived at Wheeling, Grabb was hung by a mob and hanged. His friends have the master in charge.

Knocked Out by a Judge.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—At Santa Cruz John Kennedy, a notorious rough, was convicted of battery. While Judge Rountree was making out the commitment, the prisoner, who was in the dock, struck the judge, having learned of the writing of the warrant, and struck him so hard that the judge, if the latter had been present, would have come to the rescue to receive the money. Grabb and the two set out with the panaceia, giving entertainments on the way. Arrived at Wheeling, Grabb was hung by a mob and hanged. His friends have the master in charge.

MISSOURI DEMOCRATS

VERY ANXIOUS TO REMOVE THE POSTMASTER AT ST. LOUIS.

Delegates of the District of Columbia Laying for a Change of Officers—Cited Appellants—Opposition to Senator Gorman's Rule—Notes.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—It was Missouri day at the postoffice department. There were two separate delegations and three or four followed on their own hooks after postoffices. The delegations called on the officials for a change in the St. Louis office. It was said that the people of Missouri never would believe that the administration meant reform until they turned Republicans political managers out of office and put them in charge of Democrats. They did not have time to talk as they desired to talk to the postmaster general, for the reason that he had to leave them to go to the meeting of the cabinet.

Industry has been made at the postoffice department to ascertain whether John W. McKnight, recently appointed as one of the postal agents at Castleton, N. Y., is the man who was put in charge of the district contract with Mr. Shewell, and a defendant in several suits for swindling.

There was an impression in some quarters that the president was likely to make the district appointment, but others were of the opinion that the district Democratic delegates, who do not vote, claim to have done a great deal of important work for the party during the last campaign in the way of contributions of money and organization. They feel that it is time that the Republican officials appointed by Presidents Garfield and Arthur should be required to step down and out, every one of them having been offensive partisans in the strictest meaning of the term.

The officers referred to are the marshal, the postmasters, the recorders of wills and deeds of the United States district attorney. There are about a dozen applicants for each position. It was reported last week that the president had said that he intended to appoint a colored man in the place of Fred Douglass, who was removed by order of President Garfield, but it is now stated on what is claimed to be good authority that the president has never made any such statement, and that he entertains no such intention. Mr. John E. Morris, president of the faction known as the "Gormans," who has been connected with that body for forty years, has been almost certain that he would get the place. He is indorsed by all the Democrats of prominence, and by all members of the cabinet. Several colored Democrats have turned up as applicants for the place recently, and it is understood that William Matthews, the colored Darmstadt contractor, would gladly take the place if it was given him. He says he has ten thousand and eight hundred dollars a year. At present all the clerks in the office are colored. The white woman who Mrs. Douglass married was a clerk in the office for some time before she left her.

A Maryland Democrat who was here said: "The Democratic political pot never boiled as it is boiling just now in Baltimore. A combination of civil service, Democratic and Republican has made such a match which they expect to elect Judge Brown mayor of that city. The plan of the Gorman wing of the party was to have Mayor Latrobe, who has been mayor three terms, succeeded, but as they recollect the fact of the coalition in favor of Judge Brown, they have quietly dropped him, and they are now working for the nomination of Mr. James Hodges. Behind the scenes, however, are the names of important men to whom will come the Democrats elected to the legislature. The real purpose of the combination is to defeat the re-election of Senator Gorman to the senate. The fight will be made against him will be made in the name of freedom under the battle cry that the machine must go, as also all machine politicians."

Memorial Services.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Every arrangement needful to the success of the Grant memorial celebration at the Metropolitan M. E. church has been made. There were 1,400 invitations sent out. The arrangement had been made by Gen. Sheridan, Admiral Porter and others of note were present. An excellent order of service was arranged. Professor Widwood, piano, appropriate music on the organ from 7 to 8 o'clock. Minutes were rung during that hour. From 8 to 8:15 o'clock Professor Bischoff played selections upon the organ. At the conclusion of the organ concert Department Commander N. M. Brooks called attention to the fact that Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. E. H. Hinsley, pastor of the church. The St. Cecilia quartette followed with vocal music. Gen. John A. Rawlins, former Adjutant General, adjutant. At the conclusion of the services the St. Cecilia quartette again sang appropriate selections. Rev. Benjamin Swallow, department chaplain, bestowed the benediction. Professor Widwood then played musical airs as the audience left the church. The services though very plain were impressive.

HE CAME DOWN.

Novel Method of Bilingualizing a Convict From France.

JOLIET, Ill., Oct. 2.—Baptist James Young, of Carroll county, who is serving a sentence of ten years at the state prison here, escaped from the harness shop and climbed up the top of a high brick wall in the prison yard. The warden saw him and ordered him to come down. Young refused and intimated a willingness to see the warden in a certain hot place before doing so.

The electric chair engine was called out and two convicts ordered to climb the brick and turn a hose on Young. Andy McKey held the nozzle and as was about to turn on the chemical he yelled up to Young that if one of the convicts turned the chemical gas straight on his body it would burn off like oil of vitrol. Young gave a yell for mercy and commenced to scramble down the derrick much to the amusement of several hundred convicts who were slyly watching the proceedings from the windows of the workshops.

CINCINNATI Registration.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 2.—The main work of registration is over. Over 100,000 names are on the books. Very nearly all the names registered, for the last spring election the total vote for mayor was 61,745, a difference of 1,646.

Judge George W. Ward, of Abingdon, Va., who was so seriously assaulted by Dr. White and two other men, is improving.
